

Eng.111/112 Writing Rubric

UNITY/ DEVELOPMENT

The thesis is restricted, unified, and precise. All writing components are unified. Development is complete; the rhetorical strategies are clearly and logically applied and coherently linked to the thesis.

PARAGRAPH ORGANIZATION/DEVELOPMENT

Paragraphs are unified with the thesis by a topic sentence, developed, and coherent.

VOICE/TONE

Voice is consistent and appropriate for the audience.

WORD CHOICE/DICTION

Language is precise and varied.

SENTENCE SYNTAX AND COHERENCE

Sentence syntax is effective and varied. Transitions and coherence between sentences are effective.

RESEARCH/CITATIONS

Research is thorough. In-text citations are appropriate, integrated, and correctly cited in the specified citation style. Citations for research are complete and correct.

CONVENTIONS

Writing demonstrates mastery of standard writing conventions (e.g. grammar, punctuation, and mechanics.)
